

Werk
Orgie Form

L. to R.:

Rachel Isabel Smith Orgill
holding Ethel Orgill Webb

Arabell Orgill Mountain - long hair - Minnie
Orgill McGuire in front

Mark Orgill holding
Phoebe Orgill Remond

Pack Row L to R -

Arabelle Orgill co

John Moulton

One to old

Ethe! Orgill co

Wm. New

Ethe! M

Joseph Arville Orgill co

Wm. Bell (2) Hazel McKenre

bottom

Thos. Jackson "

" 00 Emily "Mary" Nelson

see Horn

James New "

" 00 Thos. Mc Donald

Phoebe Hannah "

" 00 Chas Lemire

2 Weeks six

Arthur's Belchers

Velma Wilderson

Adeline Sinclair

Front Row:

Mary Orgill co Nels Johnson

Elizabeth Maud "

" 00 Geo. O. Massey

Minnie "

" 00 Bernard McGuire

Isabel Smith co

Mark Orgill

Dora Lorette Orgill co

Thos. Mc Kenre (Web) Webb

Bessie Orgill co Dan Gordon

Emma Jane Orgill co Eli Gordon

JOSEPH A. AND LILY MAUDE
BELL ORGILL
HAZEL MCKENZIE

Joseph A. Orgill

Joseph Alvin Orgill was born on March 19, 1880, at Wellington, Juab County, Utah, son of Mark Orgill and Rachel Isabel Smith Orgill.

He came with his parents to Daniel when it was being settled and with all the family helped to clear the land for farming. He married Lily Maude Bell on December 13, 1902. She was a fine wife and mother. She worked in the Church organizations and reared her sister, Elvira Carten's, baby girl Sarah. Maude died July 21, 1936.

Joseph was the third bishop of the Daniel Ward from 1929 to 1935. He was a farmer and stockman. He also served on the Daniel school board.

Later he married Hazel McKenzie, in January, 1937, and they moved to Clearfield and worked at Hillfield.

Joseph and Maude's children were: Alden, who died; Darold, and Alta Bell.

Farmer Stockman
Bishop